American Cyber Provides Additional Support on Second JSP Contract

American Cyber's partner NCI, has been awarded a Joint Service Provider (JSP) Service Delivery contract to provide information technology (IT) products, services, solutions and customer support to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff (JS), the Director of Administration (DA), the Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA), the Washington Headquarters Services (WHS) and other various OSD offices to meet both mission and business requirements.

American Cyber currently provides IT support to JSP at Ft. Detrick, Md., under a separate contract awarded by Headquarters, Department of the Army. The new NCI contract will focus on JSP organizations at multiple locations throughout Arlington and the Pentagon.

"I am delighted with the award notice we received from NCI to begin recruiting for this contract," said Laurie Freeman, American Cyber's Vice President of Operations. "JSP does an outstanding job for their DoD customers and we're excited to provide additional support to another segment of the JSP program in Arlington, VA," she concluded.
